

Lotteries and Gaming Authority

PRESS RELEASE

18th October, 2005

The Lotteries and Gaming Authority would like to make reference to the judicial protest filed by Mr Karl Long against EuroGaming.

When the complaint on the incident was lodged with the Authority, an investigation to establish the facts was started immediately. The Authority has requested information from the parties involved to prepare a report and conclude on its findings; If necessary the Authority may order a full forensic audit of the licensees' remote gaming system.

The LGA takes every complaint by players seriously. However, it must stress that full investigation has to be carried out before any conclusions can be reached.
